

COLLINS, O'SULLIVAN JOIN GRAHAM CURTIN

Established New Jersey attorneys Patrick T. Collins and David O'Sullivan have become Of Counsel to Graham Curtin, where they will focus efforts on the continued growth of the firm's litigation and real estate practice groups.

"We are very excited to have Patrick and David join the firm," said Graham Curtin managing partner Peter Laughlin. "They are both highly regarded attorneys in the state. Their outstanding track records in litigation, construction law, real estate and family law will benefit our clients and provide additional resources to a growing practice."

Mr. Collins concentrates his practice in commercial litigation, with an emphasis on construction industry disputes. He will also continue to grow the firm's family/matrimonial law practice. Over the course of his 32 year career, he has tried numerous cases in the State and Federal courts and in various arbitration settings. Mr. Collins attended Seton Hall University, where he earned both his B.A. and J.D.

Mr. O'Sullivan joins Graham Curtin after building a successful litigation and family law practice with the O'Sullivan Law Group. As a former Fortune 100 Corporate Real Estate Director and Director of Corporate Real Estate Advisory Services for Ernst & Young, Mr. O'Sullivan has also counselled major corporate and commercial clients nationally and internationally. Mr. O'Sullivan earned a joint JD/MBA from the Seton Hall University School of Law and received his B.S. from Boston University.
